Michel is a kid who's just been in an accident where he lost his parents. His uncle and aunt decide to take him camping to help him forget his troubles but instead they get involved in a small town conspiracy where several locals have gone missing. A young boy goes on a weekend camping excursion. His cheerful uncle and aunt try to lift up his spirits, as the boy grieves and recuperates after a horrific accident. The wilderness of the north, though, has its own secrets and dangers. What is meant to be a weekend diversion turns into an adventure worthy of a child's imagination.
